

THE COCONINO SUN.

The name of W. F. Gibson appears in our announcement column as a candidate for the office of town marshal. Mr. Gibson is fully qualified to fill this office and if elected he will give his whole time to the performance of the duties of the office.

Charles Sparr returned to Flagstaff this week. Three months ago he was thrown from a horse at Seligman and his shoulder was broken in the fall. Since that time he has been in the hospital at San Francisco for treatment. He has fully recovered from his injury.

A convention of miners was held at the court house yesterday and the following horny handed miners were selected to represent Coconino county at the territorial convention of miners, which meets in Phoenix on Tuesday, March 1: F. W. Sisson, R. H. Cameron, E. S. Clark, J. C. Brown, Max Salzman, Gwyne Dennis.

Mr. J. H. Hicks, the cattleman, has returned from Colorado, where he has been working on his cattle range. Mr. Hicks returned with a broken leg, which happened last week while chasing a bunch of cattle near Trinidad. The ground was covered with ice and his horse slipped and fell on his leg. This is the third time the same limb was broken in precisely the same manner.—Phoenix Herald.

Prof. R. B. George, assisted by Mrs. George and Mr. Greene, all of Chicago, gave a concert in the M. E. Church last Wednesday night to a large and enthusiastic audience, who encored every piece to a second. A class of twenty-five was organized to study music. This local chorus of thirty voices and a children's chorus of thirty voices will give a concert in the M. E. church on Monday night, February 21, at 8 o'clock. A fine programme will be rendered. Proceeds divided with the church. Admission 25 cents for both adults and children.

Robert Noble of Williams was brought here Monday and was examined before Probate Judge Layton as to his sanity. Dr. A. G. Rounseville and Dr. P. A. Mellick of Williams testified that they believed Noble was insane and that it was dangerous to allow him to be at large. Noble was ordered sent to the insane asylum at Phoenix.

Mr. R. B. George, with the assistance of Mrs. George and Mr. Greene, gave a free concert in the M. E. church on Wednesday night. After the concert a class in "singing" was organized by Mr. George. It is intended to give a short training school for this community. The course is eminently practical and will result in a revival of interest in vocal music. The course will close with a concert on Monday night.

W. A. Mayflower announces that he will be a candidate for election to the office of supervisor of the streets of the town of Flagstaff. Mr. Mayflower has held this position since the organization of the town. He has filled the office in a satisfactory manner and has, with the limited means at his command, done good work on the streets of the town, and he is willing to leave the matter of the approval of his work to the voters of the municipality.

The following out-of-town people registered at the New Bank hotel during the week: C. W. Smith, Los Angeles; L. L. Lyon, Denver; Silva Herman, Cincinnati; Otto Kaiser, Los Angeles; J. R. Halsey and wife, Kingman; C. O. Wiggins, Philadelphia; J. T. B. Beatty, Fort Wayne; J. M. Hale, St. Joseph; J. F. Pearce, Phoenix; R. M. Craig, Albuquerque; H. J. Bellrough, St. Louis; Alexander Reed, San Francisco; Sig Neiderberger, Chicago; M. A. Rycheild, San Francisco; T. A. Lewis, St. Joseph; George Oakley, C. E. McCoy, Kansas City; P. Rosenheim and wife, Charles Bates, Chicago; A. T. Hilton, Topeka; George Tenebroter and James Treat, San Francisco; T. H. Sutton, Los Angeles; James Lenden, San Francisco.